

Name:

Date:

Children Who Marched Reflection Worksheet

(Source)

Instructions: Watch the video and answer the reflection questions.

Facts to Consider:

- Thousands of African American students walked out of their schools and began a peaceful march in Birmingham, Alabama to protest segregation.
- They were met with attack dogs and water hoses.
- The images shocked the nation and were a catalyst for the Civil Rights Act.

Virtual Field Trip to Birmingham Reflection Guide

1) How would you have reacted if you saw the “colored” and “white” signs?

---

---

---

2) How would you feel if you met someone who actually lived in the segregated south?

---

---

---

3) What would you ask them given the chance?

---

---

---

4) What do you think about the amount of research the students have done prior to visiting Birmingham? How do you feel it prepared them for the trip?

---

---

---

5) Why do you think some of the students in the 1960s were nervous prior to the march?

---

---

---

6) How would you feel if you had the chance to join these students on this field trip to see the historical locations and meet those who participated in the Children's Crusade?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

7) How do members of a community effect change?

---

---

---

8) If you could march today, what would you march for?

---

---

---

9) In your opinion, can one person make a difference in the world? Can children make a change?

---

---

---