

Reflections of Injustice and Inequality for Young MLK

Vocabulary Terms

- 1) justice: the quality of being just, impartial, or fair
- 2) equality: the quality or state of being equal
- 3) fair: in a manner that is honest or impartial or that conforms to rules
- 4) injustice: violation of right or of the rights of another; unfairness; an unjust act; wrong
- 5) inequality: the quality of being unequal or uneven

Age 6: Martin and the son of a white grocery store owner are best friends.
How do you think Martin felt?	How would you feel?

Age 6: Martin and his best friend were forced to go to different schools because they had different skin colors.
How do you think Martin felt?	How would you feel?
What would make it fair (just and/or equal)?

Age 6: Martin and his best friend were not allowed to play together because they had different skin colors.

How do you think Martin felt?

How would you feel?

What would make it fair (just and/or equal)?

Age 15: Martin won the Colored Elks Clubs of Georgia essay contest.

How do you think Martin felt?

How would you feel?

Age 15: Martin and the other Black students were forced to give up their bus seats up to white bus riders on their way back to Atlanta.

How do you think Martin felt?

How would you feel?

What would make it fair (just and/or equal)?